

Upper School Math Teacher

Position Description

Teach five courses in the Math Department in grades 9-12, and supervise two after-school activities. Assume other duties as assigned by the Head of Upper School.

Primary Responsibilities

- Ensure the safety and well-being of all students in the school.
- Develop course curricula aligned to learning standards, create lesson plans with defined learning objectives, teach classes, and provide support to students in and out of class.
- Maintain current and detailed documentation for all students, including information related to grading, behavior, attendance, etc.
- Communicate proactively with Department Chairs, Head of Upper School, Assistant Head, Dean of Academics, colleagues, and parents as necessary concerning student engagement and performance.
- Maintain active communications with students' parents/guardians.
- Supervise after-school activities while ensuring student safety at all times, giving direction appropriate to the activity, and modeling good behavior and citizenship.

Secondary Responsibilities

- Research current trends in Math content and instructional methods appropriate to teaching Math to different learning styles. Share research findings with department colleagues and, if appropriate, with other teachers in the school.
- With the involvement of your supervisor/manager, create a personal development plan that will enhance your professional performance. This may include identifying professional development activities and opportunities that will sharpen teaching skills and broaden your knowledge base to advance the educational objectives of the school.

Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in math or math education. Master's degree in education-related field preferred.
- At least four years of experience as a classroom teacher preferred, ideally in an independent school; international school experience a plus.
- Ability to collaborate with faculty, staff, admin, and parents.
- Ability to communicate clearly and effectively, verbally and in writing.
- Strong organizational skills, attention to detail, and follow-through.
- Positive attitude, flexible approach, and a sense of humor.
